No. 422

Dated: 18.03.2021

Office order

An Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) is hereby reconstituted for the session 2021-22 with following roles and responsibilities:

The Role of the Committee

In pursuance of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013 and the Rules framed there under, the Institute hereby adopts the following procedure for determining complaints filed to the Internal Complaints Committee constituted under the Act. The procedure complies with the basic principles of natural justice and fair play and has to be adhered to in all complaints, though, in individual complaints, for reasons to be stated in writing, the Internal Complaints Committee reserves the right to make exceptions to the procedure stated hereunder.

Any aggrieved woman may make, in writing, a complaint of dishon or harassment at workplace to the Internal Complaints Committee, within a period of three months from the date of incident and in case of a series of incidents, within a period of three months from the date of last incident. 6 copies of a written complaint should be submitted to the Committee or any of its members along with list of witnesses and supporting documents. Additional documents and list of witnesses can be submitted to Internal Complaints Committee at a later stage during the proceeding. Provided that where such complaint cannot be made in writing, the Presiding Officer or any other member of the ICC shall render all reasonable assistance to the woman for making the complaint in writing. Any complaint received by the members should be immediately forwarded to the Presiding Officer, and this must be notified to other committee members at the earliest and not later than 3 days and a meeting should be called for discussing the matter. The Committee shall discuss and decide on its jurisdiction to deal with the case or reject the complaint prima facie and recommend to the Institute that no action is required to be taken in the matter. The Committee may call any person to appear as a witness if it is of the opinion that it shall be in the interest of justice. The aggrieved woman/respondent has to submit the written reply before the committee within the specified time given. The Committee shall have the right to summon, as many times as required, the respondent, aggrieved woman and/or any witnesses for the purpose of supplementary testimony and/or clarifications. All proceedings of the Internal Complaints Committee shall be recorded in writing.

The record of the proceedings and the statement of witnesses shall be endorsed by the persons concerned as well as the committee members present in token of authenticity thereof. After concluding its investigation, the Committee shall submit a detailed reasoned report to the Institute.

The Institute authorities will file a compliance report to the Committee within 30 days of issuance of such recommendation.

OFFICE ORDER

STUDENTS COUNSELLING COMMITTEE OF GOVT.
COLLEGE OF PHARMACY ROHRU DISTT. SHIMLA H.P.

Objectives:--

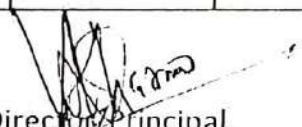

1. To set up a professionally staffed confidential Student Counseling Cell to provide assistance to students having personal, emotional, social and academic problems
2. To ensure that the Student Counseling Cell has a team of experienced female and male faculty members acting as Counselors, who are accustomed to helping students from many different back grounds and cultures and with a wide range of personal issues
3. To provide the counseling's Service free to all students of the college and to make it available throughout the year.
4. To ensure that a counselor seeks to help the students to focus on and understand more clearly the issues that concerns him/her. By respecting his/her own values, choices and lifestyles; the counselor can work together with the student towards making choices or changes that are right for him/her. Sometimes, it is found that the students get depressed because of their failures most of which could be attributed to their lack of confidence and inhibitions.
5. To address specific problems relating to studying, often in more structured approach Focusing on improving study skills.
6. To implement proper programmes for Students Guidance and Mentoring at the department level. Individual faculty members handling a subject are volunteered to assist students who need extra help to maximize their learning outcomes in the subject being taught. Faculty members act as mentors to provide individual or small group of student's instructions outside of class lessons to meet an immediate learning need.
7. To ensure that regular tutorial classes are conducted in all the subjects in order to understand the topics taught in a much simpler way and to develop problem solving skills.
8. To interact with English Department faculty members to offer special programmes to improve and enhance English Communication skills of the students coming from rural background to fare well in examinations and for future challenges

9. To encourage the students to do quality work, creative problem-solving, promote self-learning, self-improvements and communication and help the students to reduce mistakes there by creating positive attributes throughout the study period at the college.
