4.4.1.1 - Expenditure incurred on maintenance of infrastructure (physical facilities and academic support facilities) excluding salary component during the year (INR in lakhs)

During the academic year 2023-24, the institute demonstrated its commitment to infrastructure development and maintenance through significant financial investments. A total budget of ₹42,98,161 was allocated for infrastructure augmentation, with ₹7,00,000 sourced from Government funds and ₹35,98,161 from the Student Welfare Fund (SWF). This allocation underscores the institute's proactive approach to improving its facilities to support academic and operational activities. The actual expenditure on infrastructure augmentation amounted to ₹42,98,067, which included ₹6,99,906 from Government funds and ₹35,98,161 from SWF. These resources were effectively utilized to upgrade facilities, enhance learning environments, and provide modern amenities that cater to the needs of students and staff alike. In addition to infrastructure augmentation, the institute incurred a total expenditure of ₹42,98,067, excluding salaries, which highlights the scale of investment made toward overall institutional growth. Of this, ₹48,70,029 was spent on the maintenance of academic facilities, ensuring that classrooms, laboratories, libraries, and digital resources were well-maintained and equipped for uninterrupted educational activities. This expenditure comprised ₹11,99,918 from Government funds and ₹36,70,111 from SWF, reflecting a balanced utilization of resources for academic excellence. Furthermore, ₹1,12,139 was allocated for the maintenance of physical facilities, ensuring the upkeep of essential amenities such as buildings, equipment, and utilities. This included ₹29,339 from Government funds and ₹82,800 from SWF. These financial allocations and expenditures not only signify the institute's focus on providing high-quality academic and physical facilities but also highlight its preparedness to adapt and grow in response to the evolving needs of its stakeholders. The judicious use of funds ensures sustainable development and the continuous enhancement of institutional standards.
